Faculty Research Lecture Series, 2007-2008
Tuesday Noon — Presidents Dining Room

September 11  Yingxia Cao, James Schirmer, Al Clark, and Mark Nelson “Online Course Evaluations: Are Their Results Different from Traditional Ones?”

September 18  Jeffrey Kahan, ""Master Betty"" Teenage Tragedian"

September 25  Paul Abbondante, “Value of One Click Scorecard in Making Investment Decisions”

October 9  Christine Broussard, “Effects of Methoxychlor Exposure on the Development of CD4 T cells in C57BL/6 Mice”

October 23  Darren Avrit, “FAvrit Instant Activities: Helping classroom teachers work toward the physical education content standards”

November 8 (Thursday)  Faculty Research Day (Wilson Library)

November 13  Ashley Lipson,* “Regulating Video Games”

November 27  Emily Shoemaker, “The Disposition to Teach”

December 11  Dan Campana, “Ideology of the Family: A Case Study for Christian Narrative Ethics”

January 8  Janis Dietz, “The importance of attitude in customer re-purchase intention”

January 22  Jack Meek, “Participation Approaches to Governance: Implications for Environmental Management”

February 12  Julius Walecki,* “Firm Location and Regional Development: What Businesses and Governments Need to Learn about Economic and Geographic Spaces”

February 26  David Chappell, “Star Formation and the Structure of Interstellar Space”

March 25  Stacey Novak, “Orchid Development from Seed to Protoplasts”

April 8  Chuck Doskow, “The Rule of Law Initiative in Jordan”

April 22  Glenn Gamst, “The Multicultural Assessment Intervention Process (MAIP) Model and Community Mental Health”

April 25 (Friday)  Faculty Book Day (Wilson Library)

May 6  Xiaoyan Liu, “Univariate and Bivariate Spline Functions and Applications”

May 13  George Keeler, “Designing a Streamlined Internship Program of Distinction”

*Inaugural lecture as full Professor.